Senior Class Officers

The Four Class Presidents

CLASS HISTORY OF 1947

The class of "47" shyly entered Havre High to receive the customary scourging given by the seniors. After eradicating every parasitic, and some not so parasitic, growths from the football field, giving the H a new face and absorbing all the whacks our posteriors could stand, we were cordially invited to a dance in our honor.

Chosen to lead us through our first year was Jack Griswold, President. He was ably assisted by Bill Swanton, Vice-president; Marky Kato, Secretary; Josephine Bugli, sponsor. An enlightened group consisting of Mary Wright, John Johnson, Francis Lamey, and Betty Jane Boswell were selected to represent us in the student council.

Three successful dances were sponsored that first year, and many class members were active in social clubs. In sports Bob O'Donnell made Havre High history by attaining a position on the Blue Pony basketball team.

In our second year we elected Marky Kato to serve as president. Supporting him as vice-president was Francis Lamey, secretary-treasurer, Jeanne Corneia; supervisor, Miss Josephine Bugli. Our representatives on the student council were: Francis Lamey, Jack Travis, Bonnie Lu Perry, and Jim Elliot.

Outstanding personalities in the field of sports were: Jack Estervog, Marky Kato, Bob O'Donnell, and Dick Ruetten who received basketball letters. In 1944 our class sponsored several dances, the most successful of which was the Sport Dance. We also participated in the activities of many clubs.

The junior class enrolled in 1945 with Bill Swanton as president of the third very busy year. His understudies were Dick Kluzek, vice-president; Marilyn Bailey, secretary-treasurer, and were under the supervision of Miss Josephine Bugli, and Miss Catherine Colosky. To aid them in their executive duties were the student council members: Mary Wright, Jeanne Corneia, Jack Lang, and Walter Hoppe.

The outstanding event of the social year was the Junior Prom, beautifully arranged in roses, gorgeous flowers, and garden blues to match the theme, "Moonlight and Roses." The dance was under the direction of Walter Hoppe, Bob O'Donnell, and Bill Swanton.

A number of clever dances were sponsored and the juniors participated in every club and staff.

Students of our junior year who gained membership in the National Honor Society were Betty Jane Boswell, Betty Clikeman, Gertrud Frost, Francis Lamey, and Jack Travis. Many juniors traveled to Bozeman to take part in the State Scholarship tests. Those who attained honors were Jack Travis, first place in current history, and Morris Ormseth, second place in English III. Also honored were Donald Jones, Betty Jane Boswell, Marilyn Bailey, Betty Clikeman, and Arnold Mikkleson. Jack Travis also won the Auxiliary of Veterans of Foreign Wars Essay Contest, Bonne Lu Perry took second place, and third was Betty Jane Boswell.

Sports personalities loomed high in our junior year. In football Marky Kato, Jim Adams, Charles Williams, Gordon La Fournaise, Jack Estervog, Bob Stieler, Jim Elliott and Bob O'Donnell earned awards. Pony basketball awards and medals for second place in the Northern Divisional tournament were given to Marky Kato, Bob O'Donnell, and Charles Williams.

Jack Griswold was delegated to lead us through our last and most successful year. Other officers were Francis Lamey, vice-president; Betty Jane Boswell, secretary, and Bill Swanton, treasurer; subordinate to the discreet path were Jack Lang, president; Marilyn Bailey, secretary; Francis Lamey, and Walter Hoppe (Alternate for Alanna Knapp).

In 1946, we seniors surpassed the usual soiree. The theme was "Autumn Serenade" featuring bright oranges, browns, and yellows, abounding in leaves typical of the fall season. Arrangements for this gala affair were under the management of Bob O'Donnell, Betty Jane Boswell, and Lila Brader. Our class also sponsored many unique dances. The "turnabout" dance, at which every other dance was ladies choice, was the most successful.

On class and award day an assembly appropriate to the occasion was given. We also led the majority of the clubs and staffs.

Rita Laundry, Morris Ormseth, Bonnie Lu Perry, Marky Kato, and Eleanor Haynes were elected into National Honor Society in their senior year.

As graduation drew near, we looked back on our four years at Havre High and reminisced about the many swell times we had enjoyed and friends we had known, shedding a tear in our hearts at the thought that it was too soon over.

CLASS WILL OF 1947

The Senior Class of 1947, aware that in departing from Havre High they leave a vacancy that can never be filled, try to make up this loss to all undergraduates and faculty members by bequeathing the following:

Anna Anderson hasn't left yet. She's still sitting in her Essex. Will someone please give her a push?
 Marilyn Andrus leaves Pete to Lenore Kravik.
 John Bachini wills his dancing ability to Stanley Burr.
 Marilyn Bailey bequeaths her ability to play the piano to Francis Sprauge.
 Laura Barsanti leaves to change her address to Malta.
 Lorraine Beck wills her meek voice to Jean Harvey.
 Elizabeth Bell keeps her pleasing personality.
 Martha Bitz leaves her extra hours in the typing room to Mary Weyh.
 Clayton Bostic leaves Pat Karlan to anyone.
 Betty Jane Boswell wills her straight "A's" to Pat Thompson.
 Lila Brader wills all of her boy friends to Donna Ratzloff. Think you can handle them Donna?
 Wilfred Brown leaves his curly hair to Mr. Roubinek.
 Marian Buell leaves Limpy behind.
 James and Alyce Burchard go, leaving their sisters to carry on.
 Bernadette Cebulla bequeaths her quiet ways to Bette Blue.
 Mary Ann Chase leaves all of her cosmetics to Elaine Lanus.
 Elouise Cleary wills her swing-and-sway to Beverly Daum.
 Betty Clikeman leaves to make room for her little brother.
 Duanne Cornella will leave in a hurry.
 Jeanne Cornia leaves her curves to the State Highway Department.
 Astrid Crites goes heading for Gildford.
 Delores Davis leaves her little sister; isn't that enough.
 Ilo Donker wills her blond hair to Helen Orlando.
 James Elliot leaves whatever he has left to Amy May Enochson.
 Annabelle Felton bequeaths her artistic ability to the Art Classes.
 Ramona Ferris wills her secret of getting along with the teachers to anyone who can use it.
 Bill Fitzgerald leaves, reminding all underclassmen of his motto, "Safety First."
 Tom Flatt wills his sparkling wit to Kenny Hanson.
 Walter Flechsig hasn't left yet; he's still in the trade shop.
 Gertrude Frost bequeaths her intelligent looks to Dell Eskestrand.
 Delores Gerstenberger wills her bangs to Doreen Ratzloff.
 Henry Gilmore bequeaths his mathematical wizardry to Harry Green.
 Liliana Graham leaves her transportation checks to Norma Haaland.
 Lawrence Green wills all his poker winnings to his close friend, Floyd Vallie.
 Edith Gribble bequeaths her winning ways to Marilyn Gorman.
 Jack Griswold leaves his paper route for a small charge.
 Jo Ann Gussenhoven wills her evenings at home studying to Lois Johnson.
 Ray Hampton leaves his ability to get along with Lois Cole to Edmond Solomon.
 Mary Jean Harvey wills her ability to drive carefully to Keith Miller.
 Eleanor Haynes leaves her athletic ability to Drucie Brennan.
 Billy Hedge is on his way to becoming a C. P. A.
 Roy Hockett leaves for his farm and tractor.
 James Holland leaves in his million dollar, 1929 Chevrolet being pulled by Jim Davey's jeep.
 Helen Hoppe goes leaving a good supply of gum under the seats for all underclassmen.
 Walter Hoppe wills his draft card to the rough sophomore boys.
 Bob (Daniel Boone) Jewell leaves all his traps to Walter O'Donnell.
 John Johnson wills 75 of his pounds to Gene (Deadwood) Underwood.
 Vance Kardell leaves his 10-minute-mile to Gary Miller.
 Marky Kato takes his athletic ability with him because no one in the high school could qualify for it. Sit down, Wright.
 Ann Keeley wills her quiet ways to Nancy Grant.
 Genevieve Kinder leaves with romance on her mind.
 Clifford Kinhold goes in his $875 car, but he is still riding in the back seat.
 Dick Kluzek leaves the assemblies in silence.
 Emma Kocar wills her naturally blond hair to Barbara Peiton.
 Gordon LaFournaise leaves his "Shop Lunches" to Bud Albertson.
 Wellsey Lamey wills his formula for growing tall to Bobby Anderson.
 Jack Lang wills his position in the Student Council to Junior Wynne.
 Rita Laundry leaves her voice to "Torchy" Cowan.
 Andie Linie wills all of his interests in Chinook to Ben Newby.
 Jessie McKay leaves her little brother to Billy Leeds.
 John Malkon, better known as "Grease Monkey Malkon," is still trying to climb out of an oil pan.
 Betty Mathews bequeaths her brown eyes to Dorothy Kostman.
 Jack Mathews is heading for the Forest Service.
 Luella Matoon wills her school girl complexion plus one case of Palmolive to our fair sophomore girls.
 Roy McLaren leaves a well parted roll of shredded wheat to Hairless Jondahl.
 Arnie Mikkelsen leaves for Skinny's house in his new Model "A."
 Dorothy Minor goes still looking for the Great Falls boys.
 Jean Montross wills her red locks to Marjorie Mangels.
 Louise Morelli leaves her nights in the park to anyone who is over there.
 Margaret Mosbrucker leaves for a job at Buttrey's.
 Gordon Naylor will be very pleased if Shirley Brown's name appears in this composition.
 Bill Nelson wills his booming voice to Mickey Ellingson.
 Ruth Nelson leaves her giggles to Nan Aageson.
 Dick Nickels leaves his greasy overalls to Howard Black.
 Bob O'Donnell wills his fan club to Don Shively.
 Morris Ormseth wills his master debating ability to Tom Anderson.
 Ruth Overcast leaves her roller skates to Beverly Lathrop.
 Carol Phelan leaves the knowledge gained in her extra half year of English to Miss Bugli to be used again.
 Bonnie Lu Perry wills her experience in Journalism to next year's annual staff.
 Gloria and Eldora Peters leave their combined height to be divided among the freshmen boys.

PROPHECY

The prophecy committee for the class of 1947, after meeting on several occasions without receiving any startling visions into the far-distant future, invoked all good spirits and soon fell into a deep coma (passed out, to you underclassmen), and received the following revelation.

We seem to find ourselves in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and sixty-seven. We first come to Havre High where we see Walter "I couldn't leave it" Hoppe dictating the flunk list to his secretary, Jo Anne Gussenhoven. On the hall police staff are Monabelle Welte, Dorothy Minor, Helen Hoppe, and Eleanor Spence. Glancing to our left, we see in the superintendent's office Bob "Stinky" Stieler who has just installed a student cigarette machine near his desk, as bumming has become quite difficult. As we pass down the hall, we notice Dick "My feet ain't so big" Ruetten leaning on his broom talking to the freshman girls. The assistant janitors, Gene "Red" Cross and Glen Warp, are sanding the "47's" off the desks, while Jack Vosen and Wilfred Brown are repairing the iron arm rests in the auditorium. We stop in the library just long enough to see Carol Platen, librarian, throwing out a boy for not putting his paper back on the rack. In the study hall Ramona Ferris is looking for the boy who signed "Michael Hunt" to the library slip, for he has not been checked into the study hall. There has just been an explosion in the chemistry room and we see Wellsey "I got the formula" Lamey explaining to his students that nitro-glycerine is explosive. Across the hall Bonnie "Breathless" Perry's instructing her pupils on editing the Monthly Strole better known in "47" as the Stampede. Over in the trade shop we have Walter Flehsig explaining the fundamentals of the steering knob to his more advanced students. Down in the coach's room we find Bob "Blackie" O'Donnell telling his boys how to escape through hotel windows.

Leaving the portals of Havre High behind we spy Jim "D. S. C." Elliott teaching a new crew how to pick up garbage without spilling any. Members of his crew are Martha Bitz, Betty Boswell, Louise Morelli, Bernadette Cebulla, Astrid Crites, and Marian Buell. Proceeding to the Owl Drug Store we find Bill "Pill Pusher" Fitzgerald behind the counter besieged by several children who are crying "Daddy, I want an ice cream cone." He and Mae Matoon have been happily married for several years. In charge of the fountain is Lila Brader and her assistants are Rita Laundry, Jessie MacKay, Eleanor Haynes, and Dolores Davis. Picking up a copy of the Havre Daily Snooze, edited by Roy Hockett, we see that Jack "Roman Nose" Griswold has just been elected city dog catcher. His campaign slogan was, "I'll nose them down."

Turning to the front page we see that Bill Guy has just reached the moon by rocket plane and is now trying to figure out a way to return. In his expedition were Justus Anderson, Bill Nelson, Ray Hampton, and Bob Jewell. On the international scene we read that Lawrence "Full House" Green has just won Canada in a poker game, and he has appointed Dolores Gerstenberger, Jean Montross, Lillian Graham and Betty Clikeman to run the country for him. Jack "Kupra" Travis has just been indicted for non-payment of income taxes. The prosecuting attorney was Andy Linie and the defending barrister was James Burchard. Judge Jack Lang imposed a sentence of 26 years of hard labor at Sing-Sing prison where Billy Hedge is warden. Turning to the sport page we see that Walter Sinnott has just won the National Butterfly Chasing Contest, but he was given a close race by John Malkon and Ann Keeley. At the bottom of the page we see the opening of a new dance club run by Dick Nickels. The featured singer is Paul Verploegen; the chorus girls are Marilyn Bailey, Alyce Burchard, Harriet Sanguine, Edith Gribble, and Emma Kocar. Homer Simpson is the head cook, and John "Mighty Mouse" Johnson is in charge of the sanitation. Vance Kardell is the doorman. In the social news we see that Miss Gertrude Frost has just been elected president of the P. T. A. of America. In the comic section, the newest character in Dick Tracy is a Tom "Sharp" Flatt. The strip is drawn by Henry Gilmore. In the vital statistics we read that Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bostic have just become the proud parents of octuplets; they will be named after Betty Mathews, Lorraine Beck, Ilo Donker, Elizabeth Bell, Maryann Chase, and Laura Barsanti, all of whom are famous movie queens. The doctor was John "Blood and Guts" Bachini and the nurse was Margaret Mosbrucker. We notice the grand opening of Gloria and Eldora Peters' new funeral parlor. First to take advantage of their two-for-one offer was Elouise "Blue Beard" Cleary who has just finished burying her fifteenth husband. Jimmy "Hot Rods" Holland is piloting the bone wagon for the establishment.

Representative Clifford "Money Bag" Kinhold is trying to get Congress to put his picture on the twenty dollar bill. Jean "Keep your eyes on the road" Corniea has just filed a suit to get her curves back from the highway department. This move was urged by the Drivers' Safety Guild, whose president is Mary "Speeder" Harvey. Ruth Overcast has just established a Beauty Salon and is featuring the famous beauticians, Ruth Nelson, Annabelle Felton, Angeline Pruys, and Rachel Tow. Their motto is "No job too big, and we have been taking the small lately." Jim "Salty" Adams is at the Santa Anita race track and we hear his famous call "Peanuts, popcorn, and chewing gum." Jack "Gung Ho" Mathews has just established an American Laundry in China, and reports are that he is taking China to the cleaners. On his staff are Jean and Joan Sticka, Peggy Walen. We now travel to France where we see Doris Velk and Genevieve Kinder running a fashion shop. Those noted singers Florence "The Figure" Tietema and Mary "Lefty" Wright are singing the "Blues" to the blacks in South Africa. In the more ritzy section of New York we see a crowd of thirsty patrons lined up in front of "Dumbo's Dew Drop Inn" which has just been redecorated by its manager, Gordon "Who pulled that boner?" Naylor. The main attractions are Marky "The singing Bartender" Kato, who makes the sours seem sweet, and that famous group, the "Bloomer Girls" who have just been imported straight from Ida's place. In the group are Dick "Spider Legs" Kluzek, Arnold "Gypsy Rose Lee" Mikkelson, Roy "Swivel Hips" McLaren, and Gordon "Hot Lips" LaFournaise. Our last look is at Madison Square Garden where we see Morris "The Muscle" Ormseth defending the heavyweight championship against Charles "Slugger" Williams.

Emerging from the trance with terrific headaches, no doubt caused by the intensity of the vision, the committee agreed that if the things foreseen by them all came true, the class of 1947 will be very successful in the hard, cruel world.

THE CLASS OF 1948

In their third year of high school this class elected Amy Mae Enochson, president; Barbara Peiton, vice president; and Tom Troy, secretary-treasurer. Elected to the student council from this class were Helen Ross, Helen Duffy, Don Hanson, and Junior Wynne.

The juniors sponsored three very successful dances during the year. Their first dance was the traditional Sadie Hawkins Day Dance.

The highlight of their junior year was the presentation of the Junior Prom April 19, with the theme "In Apple Blossom Time."

The class of '48 was well represented in athletics this year with Keith Wright, Keith Miller, Don Shively, Don Pehlke, Gary Miller, Jerald Albertson, and Eddie Zumoto receiving letters in major sports. Mr. Frizzell is class sponsor.

THE CLASS OF 1949

Harry Green, president; Eddie Sheldon, vice president; and Jean Harvey, secretary-treasurer, were the officers chosen by this year's sophomore class to lead them through their second year in high school. Those who were elected to represent their classmates on the student council were Jean Cole, Don Finley, Dorothy Harden, Dom Omlie, and Joan Skindell.

The sophomores sponsored two dances this year which were very well attended. The sophomores were also the only class to put on a class assembly.

Bob Gordon received an award in football.

Miss Swan is the class sponsor.

THE CLASS OF 1950

This year's freshmen were formally brought into high school in the traditional manner of being initiated and having a dance with the seniors that night.

The freshmen elected as their officers, Ted Niimi, president; George Tietema, vice president; and Bob Anderson, secretary-treasurer. They chose as their representatives on the student council, Neil Brenna, Donald Erickson, Rose Zumoto, Ted Niimi, and Norma Haaland.

The Freshman Dance after the Chinook basketball game was very well attended. Their other dances were also very successful.

Mr. Swenson is the freshman sponsor.

STUDENT COUNCIL

DEBATE CLUB

STUDENT COUNCIL

Two students from each advisory are chosen to serve on the student council, the organization through which students can exercise the rules of democracy and participate to some extent in forming school policies and practices. Officers this year were: President, Jack Lang; vice president, Francis Lamey; and secretary-treasurer, Marilyn Bailey.

The main duty of this organization was the formation of a calendar of dance dates. The group itself sponsored a dance December 14.

Such questions as the formation of a school safety patrol, the sponsoring of a Stampede Day, and the election of a student body president were discussed by the group.

In January the council enjoyed a banquet prepared and served by the home economics club.

DEBATE CLUB

The question debated this year was: Resolved, that the Federal Government should provide a system of complete medical care available to all citizens at public expense.

Officers for the club were: President, Betty Jane Boswell; vice president, Morris Ormseth; and secretary-treasurer, Gertrude Frost.

A debate clinic here, in which students from Lewistown, Fort Benton, St. Thomas Academy, Harlem, and Havre competed, was held November 2. Also present at the convention was Professor Ralph Y. McGinnis of the English department of the University of Montana. The debaters were served a luncheon by the home economics club.

The club sponsored a successful dance January 3.

The team participated in a series of non-decision debates in Fort Benton as well as the district tournament at Great Falls and the state tournament at Missoula.

The local group has been a member of the Montana High School Debate League for eight years and of the National Forensic League. Miss Colosky is the sponsor of the club.

Members received awards at the class day ceremonies in May.

SPUR CLUB

An honorary organization composed of a select group of students, the Spur Club has played an increasingly important part in school life since its formation in 1935.

Members of this group are selected at the close of the school term from a list of outstanding sophomore students by ballots of the entire group. On class day each of the sixteen senior members finds one of the chosen sophomores from the audience, leads him to the stage, and "caps" him in a solemn ceremony. The caps are overseas style in blue and white felt, and bear the name "Spurs" enscribed on the crown. These caps are highly valued by any member of the organization.

Officers elected at a meeting last spring were: President, Mary Wright; vice president, Marky Kato; and secretary-treasurer, Marilyn Bailey. Mrs. Azile Willey was advisor of the group.

The Spurs were a welcome sight to bewildered freshmen when they served as guides the first day of school. Later the group organized a Paddle Patrol which kept the excited spectators from crowding the fence at football games. These students decorated the gymnasium for the Rotary Club's Community Sing, December 16, and served as guides for the various church choruses for that event. Girls of the club were ushers for the presentation of the local Messiah. The club sponsored its annual Christmas party during the afternoon, December 20.

The group sponsored dances and took charge of community benefit drives in the school.

"H" CLUB

Officers in the H Club elected this year were: President, Charles Williams; vice president, Bob O'Donnell; and secretary-treasurer, Gordon La Fournaise. Members totaled twenty-three.

The H Club is one of the oldest and most respected organizations in Havre High School. For over twenty-five years those boys who have earned a letter in one of the three major sports have qualified for membership in this club. They have continued to serve the school in the sports in which they had participated.

Activities of the group began with a dance September 21. The boys efficiently managed the crowds, preventing injury to the gymnasium floor during the basketball season. They handled the coke and candy concessions.

The annual H Club banquet was held at the end of the year.

PEP CLUB

A girls' organization, designed to encourage school spirit and organized cheering at athletic events, the Pep Club functioned this year under the leadership of its sponsor, Miss Carolyn Kuhr, and the officers, who were: President, Laurel Koefod; vice president, Stella Fortin; and secretary-treasurer, Shirley Brown.

The Pep Club put on a number of varied pep assembly programs during the year, including a mock quiz program and a skit depicting funeral rites for members of the Great Falls Bisons' football team.

A series of dancing classes for the benefit of underclassmen were conducted. A yell and song contest, in which the winners were awarded prizes of two dollars, was won by Harry Green and Beverly Jones.

A first and second team of cheer leaders was chosen by the applause of the student body at an assembly September 20.

The Pep Club was first formed as a branch of the Spur Club in 1938. It has gained in popularity until its members make up one of the largest groups among Havre High's school organizations.

G. A. L.

The Girls' Athletic League, under the sponsorship of Miss Carolyn Kuhr, was headed this year by the president, Gertrude Frost; vice president, Helen Duffy; and secretary-treasurer, Virginia Mimnaugh.

Members of the H Club, the girls who govern the G. A. L. and who have earned small athletic letters for continued participation in major sports, were: Helen Donohue, Helen Duffy, Gertrude Frost, Eleanor Haynes, Mary Lou Lumpkin, Patty McGuinn, Virginia Mimnaugh, and Barbara Peiton.

Teams were formed for basketball, tennis, bowling, volleyball, and kick ball. A group of girls performed tumbling exhibitions between the halves of basketball games.

The club sponsored a successful dance, December 6. In May small "H's" were awarded to the Junior Class members, and large "H's" to the two Senior Class Members.

THE BEAKER BUSTERS

Beaker Busters, the club designed to encourage and expand the activities of those enrolled in science classes, was sponsored by Mr. Belsaas.

Last year's constitution was adopted by the group. Gary Miller was elected president; Amy Enochson, vice president; and Betty Jane Boswell, secretary-treasurer.

Each student was asked to choose one or more individual projects on which to work during the year. A demonstration by one or more of the members or a movie was presented at each meeting.

Proceeds from a dance were used to finance a banquet at the close of the year.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

Officers of the club elected September 10 were: President, Genevieve Pagel; vice president, Helen Donohue; and secretary-treasurer, Jean Cole.

More than 200 girls, representing home economics clubs in Fort Benton, Malta, Chinook, Big Sandy, Hinsdale, Gildford, and Havre, attended the district convention which was held here October 21. Also present at the convention was Mrs. Edith Harwood, state home economics supervisor. The theme of the banquet, "Food for Europe," was carried out in the programs, favors and menu. Joyce Hovee was elected district secretary at the convention.

A luncheon was served to debaters attending the local debate clinic, November 2. Members of the Student Council enjoyed a banquet prepared and served by the girls in January.

New officers were: President, Betty Jane Boswell; vice president, Pat Karlen; secretary-treasurer, Kathryn O'Neal; reporter, Betty Shaffer; historian, Phyllis Clark; and song leader, Dorothy Weyh.

In January the girls washed the gym suits of the Colts.

At the close of the year the girls were awarded pins on the basis of service in the group.

QUILL AND SCROLL

The following students earned membership in this honorary journalism organization: Marilyn Bailey, Lorraine Beck, Betty Jane Boswell, Marian Buell, Jeanne Corniea, Emma Kocar, Morris Ormseth, Bonne Lu Perry, Mona Belle Welte, and Mary Wright.

The Quill and Scroll, an international society for high school journalists, was organized April 10, 1926.

A student qualifies for membership by being in the upper one-third of his class in scholastic ability and by showing superior work in some phase of journalism.

Members must be approved by the secretary-treasurer of the society as well as their journalism instructor.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The fifteen members of the local chapter of the National Honor Society chosen in 1946 were Betty Jane Bowell, Betty Clikeman, Gertrude Frost, Francis Lamey, and Jack Travis. Joining the group this year were Eleanor Haynes, Rita Laundry, Marky Kato, Morris Ormseth, Bonne Lu Perry, Fay Brenna, Helen Donohue, Amy Mae Enochson, Don Shively, and Pat Thompson.

These students were selected from the junior and senior classes by the faculty on the basis of scholarship, character, leadership, and service.

Three of the group—Jack Travis, Francis Lamey and Betty Jane Boswell—were selected to take a general aptitude test March 25. The ten students placing highest in the nation were awarded $300 scholarships.

Angeline Price leaves her petite nose to Margaret Voise.
Dick Ruetten leaves—still convinced that Havre High will never be the same without him.
Harriet Sanguine wills her good posture to the girls P. E. classes.
Hommer Simpson wills his Brahma bull riding ability to his little brother.
Walter Sinnott leaves his love to Lolly Koefod.
Eleanor Spencer goes because of a previous engagement.
Jean and Joan Sticka will keep the school puzzled as to which was which.
Bob Stieler leaves. Does your cigarette taste different?
Florence Tietema wills her comb to Marjorie Morgan.
Rachel Tow leaves a little Tow behind.
Jack Travis leaves with the breeze still blowing.
Doris Velk wills her tact to Helen Ross.
Paul Verploegen (being partly Scotch) refused to leave anything except his seat in the assembly to any misbehaving student.
Jack Vosen leaves for Kremlin on his motorcycle.
Peggy Walen leaves the Great Falls boys heartbroken.
Glen Warp wills his 4-H steer to the local chapter. (That's no bull).
Monabelle Welte wills her poetic ability to the English classes.
Charles Williams leaves his Cookie duster to the Eddy Bakery Co.
Mary Wright wills her (Dick Tracy) ability to always get her man to (Bear Tracks) Davidson.

ANNUAL

Headed by Bonne Lu Perry as editor-in-chief and Mary Wright as her assistant, the 1947 annual staff swung into action early in the year.

The finance department, headed by Jack Griswold, business manager, and Bill Fitzgerald, advertising manager, was greatly assisted by enthusiastic salesmen who collected ads "rain or shine." The merchants down town quickly recognized the smiling faces of Nancy Manuel, Patty McGuinn, Mary Lou Lumpkin, Dick Kluzek, and Arnold Mickelson.

The attractive Blue Pony cover and the clever western division pages come from the talented fingers of Jack Travis. Ted Niimi, assistant to Jack, gave us the lovely dedication page in Old English script.

Miss Rees and Mr. Moon supervised the make-up of the attractive signs in the gym. Lolly Koefod, Tommy Flatt, Walter Sinnott, and Jack Lang devoted their spare hours to lettering and the layout of signs.

Other staff members whose efforts have made this yearbook a unified whole are: Betty Jane Boswell, club editor, and her assistant, Eleanor Haynes; faculty editor and proof-reader, Morris Ormseth; yearbook layout editor, Tommy Anderson; senior editors, Jeanne Corniea, Lila Brader and Gordon Naylor; sports editor, Dick Ruetten; Francis Lamey, class editor; Jean Montross, head typist, and Liliana Graham, Elouise Cleary, Marilyn Bailey, assistants; copy editor, Florence Tietema; Emma Kocar, Rachel Tow, Lorraine Beck, Elizabeth Bell, Louise Morelli, Jim Holland, and Jack Mathews, class picture layouts.

Mary Lindelow proved herself a champion in selling advance subscriptions to the 1947 Blue Pony Annual. Other salesmen were Betty Jane Boswell, Marilyn Bailey, Bob Dougherty, Bill Fitzgerald, and Jack Griswold.

Sponsor, Miss Frances K. Hulm.

STAMPEDE

Havre High School's Stampede, published bi-weekly throughout the school year, served as the official voice of Havre High this year and represented Havre High in schools as far distant as Technical High School, Washington, D. C., and the high school of Fairbanks, Alaska.

At the start of the year the staff adopted several new journalistic policies, which brought commendation from official critics.

Working faithfully and carefully, the staff successfully produced a newspaper of interest to the entire school. At Christmas time a special issue in red and green ink was printed.

Members of the 1947 Stampede staff were: Co-editors, Betty Jane Boswell and Morris Ormseth; advertising manager, Bonne Lu Perry; business manager, Jeanne Corniea; exchange editor, Mary Wright; and reporters, Lorraine Beck, Marian Buell, Emma Kocar, and Mona Belle Welte.

THE GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club of 1947 was perhaps one of the finest that Havre High School has known for several years. It was organized and directed by Miss Josephine Bugli.

The Glee Club, being very active this year, performed many times for the public, giving their annual Christmas Cantata, "The Adoration," with Ruth Hyde, Rita Laundry, Mary Wright, Eldora Peters, Jean Montross, and Carol Phelan as soloists. In the spring they presented their annual Spring Concert, which exhibited hard work and excellent direction. During Christmas week they continued the tradition of singing carols around the decorated Christmas tree in the main hall. They also sang in the Community Sing Christmas program, which was sponsored by the Havre Chamber of Commerce and they furnished the music for Commencement Week.

A double sextette was organized this year consisting of the following girls: Rita Laundry, Nan Aageson, Mary Wright, Florence Tietema, Helen Ross, Gloria Peters, Marilyn Bailey, Nancy Grant, Carol Phelan, Martha Bitz, and Marilyn McKinsey. They were accompanied by Betty Clikeman.

The Glee Club has seen a very successful year, and much fine credit is due to Miss Bugli whose untiring efforts produced many excellent performances.

THE TABLEAU

The combined glee clubs of Havre High School presented "The Adoration," by George B. Nevin, for the third successive year as their Christmas offering to the community.

As a background for "The Adoration," a series of tableaux was presented by members of the speech class assisted by students from the English classes. These tableaux depicted scenes from the traditional Christmas story as recalled by the words of the cantata.

Portraying characters in the scenes were: Mary Ann Reed as Mary; Junior Wynne, Joseph; Jack Zygmund, the innkeeper; Jean Cole, Angel Gabriel; Joan Selner, Second Angel; Elizabeth Bell, Bernadette Cebulla, Alice Golden, Ann Ellen Keeley, Jessie McKay, Marjorie Morgan and Peggy Whalen, Angels; Donald Herron, Gene Hoyt, Marky Kato and Robert Dougherty, Shepherds. Tom Troy and Jim Elliot assisted in the production as stage crew; Walter Sinnott and Jack Travis, as electricians.

HAVRE HIGH BAND

Under the baton of C. I. Carlson, the Havre High School Band participated in more than thirty performances throughout the year. These included three home football games, twelve home basketball games, and also following the Blue Ponies to Chinook and to the Montana State High School Basketball Tournament held in Great Falls. The Band, in cooperation with the Elks Band, furnished the music for the dedication of the Great Northern Streamliner, The Empire Builder, on February 24. Also included in the Band's calendar was a Republican political rally and numerous pep assemblies.

On March 20, the Havre High Band sponsored a joint band concert with the Havre Junior High instrumental department and the grade school orchestra.

The Band also acted as host to the fifteenth annual May Festival held on May 10. More than twenty bands from northern Montana were Havre's guests.

The music department also sponsored three dances and had the concessions for the Class B divisional tournament in a drive for new uniforms.

Havre High was very fortunate in securing a talented and experienced musician as their instructor. Mr. Carlson has had twelve years of instructing music in Jasper, Minnesota; Broahings, South Dakota; Bushford, Minnesota; Glasgow, Montana; Selah, Washington, and Granite Falls, Minnesota, before coming to Havre.

He is very qualified as instructor of instrumental departments. He plays the trumpet, saxophone, clarinet, piano, flute, violin, drums and bass. He also has studied cello, bassoon and French horn.

This year for the first time instrumental instruction is being given grade school children. Mr. Carlson would like to see a grade supervisor of music in order to get the instrumental work started in the fifth grade. By this, greater incentive for music would be developed through actual participation in concerts, programs, rallies and trips. The students participating should be given equal recognition for their efforts in music as well as those who go out for athletics, for instance.

In this way Mr. Carlson feels that a greater interest will be taken in music and the students will strive for closer cooperation between the vocal and instrumental departments.

THE PEP BAND

Members of the Pep Band include regular band members who are outstanding on their particular instruments. The number of members making up the various activities was determined by the importance of the event. As few as seven played in the band at assemblies and as many as twenty-five during the basketball games.

This year the Pep Band has given varied entertainment in a wide range of activities. As in bygone years they have played at all pep assemblies and many of the basketball and football games. The high point in this year's schedule was the trip to Chinook with the basketball team. There they played several numbers with the Chinook High School Band.

Another highlight in this year's Pep Band activities was their trip to Great Falls to play at the State Basketball Tournament there.

Yea Team!

PONY FOOTBALL-1946

One of the most successful seasons in Havre's football history was seen in 1946. Though the team did not receive state honors, it was a definite threat to that title throughout the season. Sportsmanship, drive and eagerness to play was displayed by the team. This was due largely to the fine competitive spirit and football knowledge instilled into the players by Coach Dale Bohart.

The team was captained by Marky Kato, clever quarterback, whose brilliant play earned him a place on many all-state selections. Keith Wright, a good break-away runner, and Chuck Williams, powerhouse fullback, carried the brunt of Havre's offensive play. Guard, Jimmy Adams, and end, Bob O'Donnell, were outstanding linemen, strong on both offense and defense.

Off to a good start, the Ponies held the strong Butte Bulldogs to one touchdown in the first half, but gave way to heavier Purples in the second half to lose by a 32-0 decision.

In the first home game of the season the Ponies fell before a heavier Great Falls eleven, 20-6.

The Ponies romped to an easy 32-0 win over the Bozeman Hawks as fast, clever Marky Kato captained the team to victory.

Butte Central eased the Ponies by one of the closest decisions in state football this year, winning 14-13. This contest was hard fought on both sides with Lady Luck favoring the Maroons.

Kalispell was no match for the Ponies. After running up a score of 39-0 at the half, Coach Bohart gave the Baby Ponies a chance and played the reserves the second half.

Havre closed the grid season with a disappointing 6-6 tie with the Park Rangers at Livingston. A muddy, slippery field hampered Havre's razzle-dazzle attack and held ground gains to a minimum.

COLT FOOTBALL-1946

The Colts this year, under the guidance of their new coach, William Gunderson, had one of the largest squads in their history.

The Colts opened their season at Malta and lost 33-0. The following weekend they were defeated by Chinook on the home field, 12-0. Two games were dropped to the heavier and more experienced Great Falls Baby Bisons by scores of 40-0 and 14-0. A team composed of freshmen twice defeated the Junior High team by scores of 6-0 and 8-0.

Although the Colts lost four games and won only two, the experience they gained will prove of value in Pony football. The Baby Ponies learned the fundamentals of the T-formation and the advantages of quick-opening plays.

All the Colts that remained out for football for the entire season received letters.

THE BLUE PONY BASKETBALL SEASON

With eight lettermen returning to Pony basketball, Havre started the season with a well balanced club. Captained by Bob O'Donnell the Ponies rolled to nine straight victories before dropping their first loss to the Great Falls Bisons, losing the "Ole Goat" in this contest. Jumping back after their first defeat the Ponies took over the reins of the Big 16 Conference and stayed on top until early March when they dropped two games at Butte. Havre finished fifth in the conference standings.

Then on March 12 the Ponies traveled to Missoula to compete with seven other teams for the right to participate in the state tournament held at Great Falls. Havre finished in third place by defeating a fighting Butte Central squad and won the privilege of attending the state tournament.

In their first game at the state tournament the Ponies squeezed by a much bigger Glendive team, 43-41. This pitted the Ponies against the Missoula Spartans, who defeated the Havreites 46-32. Havre then played the Butte Central Maroons the following morning and won 42-36, this victory entering the Ponies in the semi-finals against Billings. The Ponies weren't hitting and the Broncs won, 37-25. This gave Havre fourth place in the state tournament.

Havre played 32 games this year and lost only eight, thus having a convincing record which speaks for itself.

On the squad were six seniors: Bob O'Donnell, Marky Kato, Dick Ruetten, Gordon LaFournaise, Jim Elliott, and Chuck Williams; and seven juniors, Don Shively, Keith Miller, Keith Wright, Don Pehlke, Gary Miller, Bud Albertson, and Don Engleson.

TRACK

The 1946 Havre track team participated in three meets last spring. The first was at Great Falls with Helena, Lewistown, and Havre attending. Havre placed third, scoring 30 points, with Keith Wright leading all performers with a 14½ point total. One week later on the home cinders the Ponies grabbed first place with Cut Bank, Chinook, Inverness, Fort Benton, and Box Elder participating. Keith Wright again sparked the locals to victory. Havre was represented in the state meet at Missoula by Keith Wright and Chuck Williams. Wright won honors in the pole vault, taking first in this event. Williams also won points in the pole vault.

This year, with four returning lettermen and an abundance of promising material, Havre's track prospects are good. The mile and half mile will be handled by Gary Miller and Vance Kardell. High jumping and pole vaulting are taken over by Keith Wright, Keith Miller and Chuck Williams. Don Engleson, Keith Wright, and Keith Miller are Havre's hopes in the dashes.

Returning lettermen are Keith Wright, Keith Miller, Don Engleson, and Chuck Williams.

COLT-SHETLAND BASKETBALL

The Colts played thirteen games this year, winning seven and losing six. Two hard fought games were dropped to the Big Sandy Pioneers by scores of 31-30 and 24-23, with goals being scored in the last few seconds by Big Sandy. The Baby Ponies ran over Chinook "B" twice by scores of 58-28 and 43-13, and the Colts completed their season with a convincing 41-29 win over Kremlin. Those on the squad included Pehlke, Hanson, Troy, Schlatter, Sargent, Pizzini, Zygmund, Harding, Gordon, Stevenson, Dourghty, Kuhr, Goligoski, Blake, Omlie, and Johndahl.

Havre's third team, the Shetlands, is made up of freshmen and sophomores. Mr. Gunderson, new Shetland coach, has taught them the double post offensive so as to prepare them for future Pony playing. Members of this squad are Wanago, Erickson, Frost, Tietema, Sheldon, Zygmund, Jenkins, Sapp, Priete, Eggleston, Chase, Underwood, Good, and Arnold.

Under the direction of Miss Carolyn Kuhr, the physical education classes for girls have met all year in two sections—one section meeting Mondays and Wednesdays, the other on Tuesdays and Thursdays. There are three classes in each section which meet first, fourth, and fifth periods in the day. According to Miss Kuhr each class averages about twenty-five girls.

Although active participation in sports is the main feature in the physical education classes, fair sportsmanship, good posture, good health habits, correct manner of dress, and appropriate hair styles are but a few of the sideline features which have been emphasized in class sessions. In connection with good health habits, the right foods, right exercise, right sleeping habits, and right dress have been a matter of discussion. Much emphasis has been placed on good sportsmanship both in class discussions and in class activities. Through group activities and the leadership of different responsibilities by different girls, the physical education program has attempted to show the girls the main requirements for being a good sport.

The girls have been responsible for three entertainments which have been held during the halves of the basketball games. Two of these entertainments were in the form of tumbling exhibitions. These exhibitions consisted of somersaults, cartwheels, hand stands, back-bends, splits, back-flips, flower formations, and pyramids. The largest entertainment was held in cooperation with the band and was entitled, "Uncle Sam's Review."

While the band played and a speech student read the explanation, girls dressed as Indians, Pilgrims, Spirit of '76, North and South during the Civil War, the Unknown Soldier of '18, Red Cross Nurses, and today's armed forces came to the center of the floor and went through representative gestures of their characters. The whole pageant was bounded by ninety-six girls from the physical education classes dressed identically in white regulation gym suits, overseas patriotic caps, with wrist bands and anklets of red, white, and blue. These girls formed an excellent drill team and marched in perfect time to form appropriate formations representing the Liberty Bell, a huge Indian tepee, the American Flag, the Red Cross, and a star-studded Color Guard. The holding of the Color Guard while the "Star Spangled Banner" was played ended the act.

During the first semester the girls played volleyball, basketball, and tumbled. Under the sponsorship of the Girls' Athletic Club and the Girls' H-Club, a basketball round-robin tournament was participated in by the G. A. L. girls and the organized class-period teams. A tumbling team was set up and the girls practiced mornings or afternoons. Volleyball practices were held on Monday evenings or after school.

Some of the planned spring activities are tennis, inner field hockey, bowling, archery, and hiking.

As a last word on her program, Miss Kuhr has stated, "Girls' physical education should be a 'must' in every school . . . cooperation through group participation does much toward laying democratic foundations in our schools and homes—and ultimately our nation."

IN APPRECIATION

The Annual staff and, may we say, all of Havre High School are indebted beyond measure to Miss Frances Hulm who has been of inestimable help in the writing and editing of the "Blue Pony Annual." Her keen insight, rare judgment, and frank criticisms, along with her excellent photographic ability has helped to make this an original and outstanding Annual.

Miss Hulm, the Annual staff and the students of Havre High thank you.

IN APPRECIATION

To each and every one who has unselfishly contributed his time and energy to the needs of this yearbook, we offer our sincerest words of appreciation.
